P R E F A C E ,

The Registers of Haydor to 1800 are contained in three volumes. The first, measuring $16\frac{1}{2}$ inches by $5\frac{3}{4}$ inches, is a parchment book well preserved and clearly written, and contains entries of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials from 1559-1649. It is this volume that is printed.

The second volume measures 11 inches by $8\frac{1}{2}$ inches, and contains entries from 1663-1738; whilst the third measures 12 inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches, and commences in 1739 and ends in 1800. It is hoped that these last two volumes will appear in print at a future date.

Concerning the parish of Haydor, or as it is otherwise spelt Heydour and formerly Heidure, it is stated that circa 1200-1220 Robert de Pichworth held land of the Fee of Gant.

Later, this Fee was held by the Bishop of Worcester, in the name of a daughter of Henry de Longchamps.

During the 14th century the Gant Fee was held by the family of Dyve, and afterwards by that of Bussey of Hougham.

In 1307, after the death of the last Gilbert de Gant, his lands were granted by the Crown to John, son and heir of Hugo de Bussey.

During the year 1338 Sir Bartholomew Burghurst, or

Burghersh (the brother of Henry Burghersh, Bishop of Lincoln), had obtained the manor of this vill and a grant of free warren over its lands.

A branch of the great house of Scrope next became lords of this Manor.

Later, Sir Roger de Swillington assigned to the Dean and Chapter of Lincoln an annual rent of twenty marks, arising from his Manor of Haydor and lands in Haceby and Braceby.

When Ralph, Lord Cromwell, founded his College at Tallershall he gave sixteen acres of wood at Haydor for its support, together with an annual rent of £4 13s. 4d., derived from tenements here and at Buston.

A descendant of the Busseys was still resident at Haydor in 1587 in the person of Edward Bussey, who was fined £50 to the Star Chamber for some offence he had committed. Leland says, "one Bussey coming of a younger brother of the house of Busseys of Hougheham, dwelleth in an Old Place at Haider, that he and his parents hath of a fee farm, of the Church of Lincoln."

The site of that "old place" is still clearly indicated by the remains of its moat.

In the North Aisle windows of the Church is some fine old glass of the reign of Richard II. One contains figures of the then three favourite patron saints of England—S. Edward, S. George and S. Edmund.

The second window contains figures of S. Vincent, S. Lawrence and S. Stephen.

In the reign of Charles II. the Manors of Culverthorpe and Haydor passed into the hands of the Newton family.

In 1743 the estates were inherited by Susanna the wife of William Eyre Archer, Esq., M.P. for Berks, and subsequently by the present owner Col. George Bramston Archer Houblon.

* During Francis Quinningborough's incumbency Richard Northam, or Northern, was curate, and in the Calendar of State Papers, Domestic, 1638-39, page 362, may be read an account of the strange proceedings of this Richard Northam, for which he was tried in the "Court of High Commission," 24 Jan. 1638-39, fined £1,000 and costs, and committed to the Gate House during the Court's pleasure, Monuments in the Church.

Here lies the body of S^r John Newton Baronet who departed this life February 12. 17 ^{$\frac{3}{4}$} aged 83. By his first wife Abigail daughter of William Heveningham Esq. he had issue one daughter Cary married to Edward Coke Esq. of Holcomb, Norfolk, & by his second wife daughter & co-heir of Michael Warton Esq. of Beverley in the county of York, & Widow of S^r John Bright of Badesworth in the same county, he had issue one son nam'd Michael, married to Margaret Countess of Coningsby, & one daughter married to William Archer Esq. of Welford in Berkshire. This Monument was erected in memory of the deceased by the Lady Newton his widow.

Here lyeth in hopes of a Glourious Resurrection Abigail, the wife of John Newton of Thorpe, in y^e County of Lincoln, Esq^e, daughter of William Heveningham of Heveningham in Suffolk, & Mary daughter & heiress of John Earl of Dover. She liv'd soe as if she meant to dye young. Even in her youth was pious & exemplary in w^{ch} she diligently hearkened to the law of GOD & her Mother, & by y^e same steps wth a gentle hand, she led into y^e way

In Memory of Margaret Countess of Coningesby who departed this life June 12th 1761. Aged 52, Lady Frances Coningesby, with whom from her childhood she had been connected by the strictest union of Concordant hearts, inscribes this Monument as a lasting Testimony of the unutterable grief, inviolable friendship, and tender affection of an only & inconsolable Sister, lost to all comfort, but from the hope of their being happily reunited in a better world, in love indissoluble & Eternal.

A Supplement to How to Write the History of a Family,

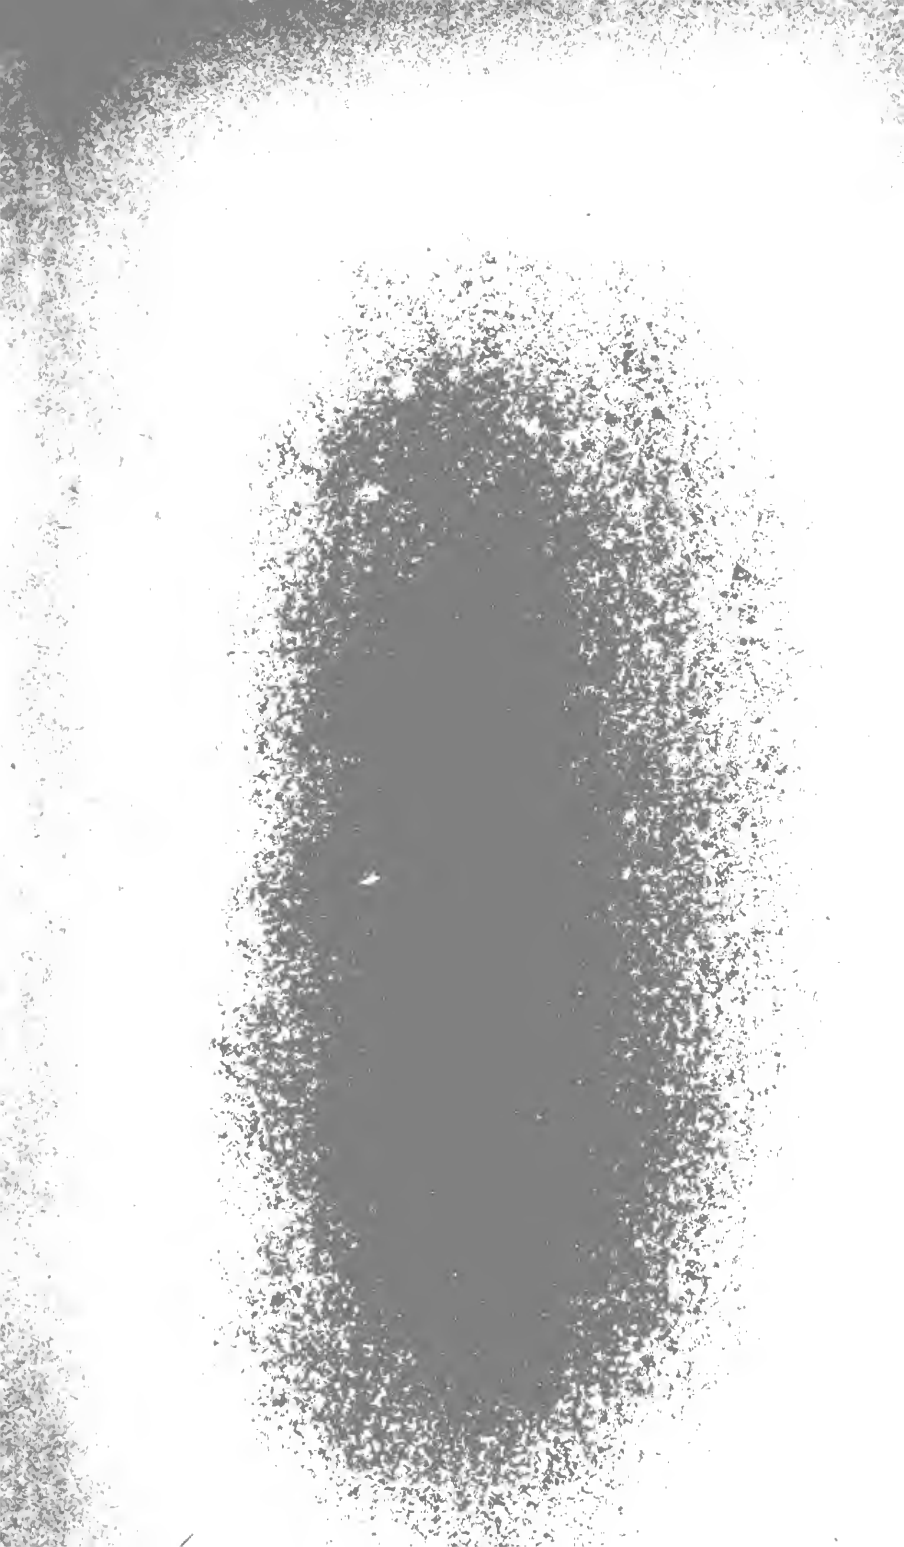

By W. P. W. PHILLIMORE, M.A., B.C.L.

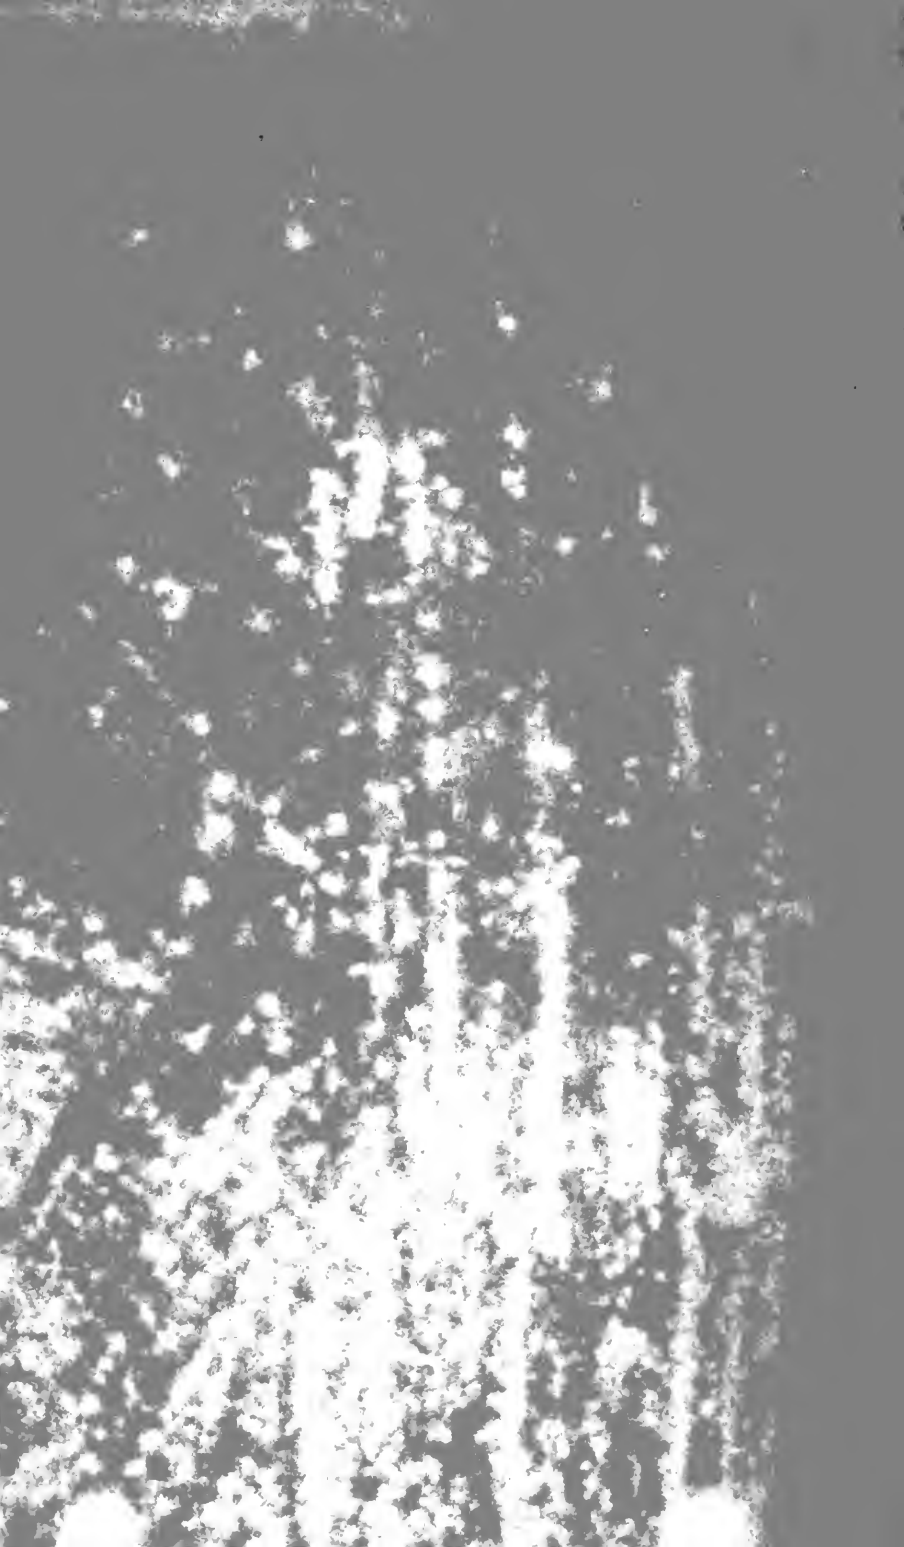

The First and Second Editions have been long since quite exhausted. Much additional information of practical value has been gathered together since the handbook was issued, and this has been put together in the form of a separate supplement, so that it may be available for the possessors of each edition. The supplement matches the original work.

It contains amongst other matter a Chapter for Beginners, Chapters on Scotch and Irish Genealogy and Records, which have been revised by Lyon King of Arms, Ulster King of Arms, and the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records, Ireland, and revised Lists of Probate Registries (England, Scotland, and Ireland) and Marriage Licenses, etc.

Fifty copies are printed on Dutch handmade paper. Price 5s. 6d.
